PART V.—Act of the Parliament of India assented to by the President and Ordinances promulgated by the President.

GOVERNMENT OF TRIPURA
LAW DEPARTMENT

No. F. 5(1)-Law/76 Dated, Agartala, the 15th January, 1977.

The following Ordinance was promulgated by the President on 31st December, 1976 and is hereby republished for general information.

The Food Corporations (Amendment) Ordinance, 1976. No. 16 of

S. K. Sinha
Under Secretary (Law)
Government of Tripura.

THE FOOD CORPORATIONS (AMENDMENT) ORDINANCE, 1976

Promulgated by the President in the Twenty-seventh Year of the Republic of India.

An Ordinance further to amend the Food Corporations ACT, 1964

WHEREAS both Houses of Parliament are not in session and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action;

NOW, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of article 123 of the Constitution, the President is pleased to promulgate the following Ordinance :-

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Ordinance may be called the Food Corporations (Amendment) Ordinance, 1976.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

Act 37 of 1964 to be temporarily amended.

2. During the period of operation of this Ordinance, the Food Corporations Act, 1964, shall have effect subject to the amendments specified in section 3.

Amendment of section 12A.

3. In section 12A of the Food Corporations Act, 1964—

(i) in sub-section (3), for the words, brackets and figures "subject to the provisions of sub-sections (4), (5) and (6)", the words, brackets, figures and letters "subject to the provisions of sub-sections (4), (4A), (4B), (4C), (5) and (6)" shall be substituted;

(ii) after sub-section (4), the following sub-sections shall be inserted, namely :—

"(4A) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (4),—

(a) every officer or other employee in respect of whom an order of transfer under sub-section (1) had been made before the date of commencement of the Food Corporations (Amendment) Ordinance, 1976 (hereafter in this section referred to as the appointed day) shall, whether or not he had exercised the option under sub-section (4) before the appointed day, exercise such option within six months from the appointed day ; and

(b) every officer or other employee in respect of whom an order of transfer under sub-section (1) may be made after the appointed day shall, within six months from the date of such order, exercise his option under sub-section (4), and in each such case such option once exercised shall be final :

Provided that where an officer or other employee having exercised an option under sub-section (4) before the appointed day—

(i) has died or retired before the appointed day, or dies or retires after the appointed day before exercising the option as required by this sub-section, or

(ii) does not exercise the option as required by this sub-section, the option already exercised by him shall be deemed to have been validly exercised by him under sub-section (4).

(4B) Where an officer or other employee- -

(a) has died or retired, or dies or retires, after an order of transfer under sub-section (1) in respect of such officer or other employee is made but before exercising the option under sub-section (4) or, as the case may be, as required by sub-section (4A) ; or

(b) has died or retired, or dies or retires, before an order of transfer under sub-section (1) in respect of such officer or other employee is made,

he shall, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (4) or sub-section (4A),—

(i) in a case falling under clause (a), be deemed to have exercised an option under sub-section (4) ; and

(ii) in a case falling under clause (b), be deemed to have been transferred under sub-section (1) and exercised an option under sub-section (4), to be governed by the leave, provident fund, retirement or other terminal benefits admissible to the employees of the Central Government in accordance with the rules and orders of the Central Government as amended from time to time :

Provided that nothing in clause (a) of this sub-section shall apply to an officer or other employee who has, before the appointed day, been paid the terminal benefits as admissible to the employees of the Corporation under the regulations made by the Corporation under this Act, unless such officer or other employee refunds in a lump sum within six months from the appointed day the amount of contributions made by the Corporation towards such terminal benefits :

Provided further that nothing in clause (b) of this sub-section shall apply to an officer or other employee who has intimated, under the proviso to sub-section (1), his intention of not becoming an employee of the Corporation.

(4C) Where an officer or other employee has exercised an option under sub-section (4), or exercises, or is deemed to have exercised, an option under that sub-section, read with sub-section (4A) or sub-section (4B), to be governed by the leave, provident fund, retirement or other terminal benefits admissible to employees of the Central Government, such benefits shall be calculated on the basis of the pay and allowances drawn by him in the Corporation.".

(b) No person, resident in India, shall deliver any currency whether Indian or foreign, which has been accepted from any foreign source, to any person if he knows or has reasonable cause to believe that such other person intends, or is likely, to deliver such currency to any political party or any person referred to in sub-section (1), or both.

(c) No citizen of India resident outside India shall deliver any currency, whether Indian or foreign which has been accepted from any foreign source, to-

(i) any political party or any person referred to in sub-section (1), or both, or

(ii) any other person, if he knows or has reasonable cause to believe that such other person intends, or is likely, to deliver such currency to a political party or to any person referred to in sub-section (1), or both.

(3) No person receiving any currency, whether Indian or foreign, from a foreign source on behalf of any association, referred ... in sub-section (1) of section 6, shall deliver such currency

(i) to any association or organisation other than the association for which it was received, or

(ii) to any other person, if he knows or has reasonable cause to believe that such other person intends, or is likely, to deliver such currency to an association other than the association for which such currency was received.

Organisation of a political nature not to accept foreign contribution except with the prior permission of the Central Government.

5. (1) No organisation of a political nature, not being a political party, shall, accept any foreign contribution except with the prior permission of the Central Government.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, "organisation of a political nature, not being a political party" means such organisation as the Central Government may, having regard to the activities of the organisation or the ideology propagated by the organisation or the programme of the organisation or the association of the organisation with the activities of any political party, by an order published in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf.

(2) (a) Except with the prior permission of the Central Government no person, resident in India, and no citizen of India, resident outside India, shall accept any foreign contribution, or acquire or agree to acquire any foreign currency, on behalf of an organisation referred to in sub-section (1).

(b) Except with the prior permission of the Central Government, no person, resident in India, shall deliver any foreign currency to any person if he knows or has reasonable cause to believe that such other person intends, or is likely, to deliver such currency to an organisation referred to in sub-section (1).

(c) Except with the prior approval of the Central Government, no citizen of India, resident outside India, shall deliver any currency, whether Indian or foreign, which has been accepted from any foreign source, to—

(i) any organisation referred to in sub-section (1), or

(ii) any person, if he knows or has reasonable cause to believe that such person intends, or is likely, to deliver such currency to an organisation referred to in sub-section (1).

Certain associations and persons receiving foreign contribution to give intimation to the Central Government.

6. (1) Every association [not being an organisation referred to in sub-section (1) of section 5] having a definite cultural, economic, educational, religious or social programme shall give, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, an intimation to the Central Government as to the amount of foreign contribution received by it, the source from which and the manner in which such foreign contribution was received and the purposes for which and the manner in which, such foreign contribution was utilised by it.

2) Every candidate for election, who had received any foreign contribution, at any time within one hundred and eighty days immediately preceding the date on which he is duly nominated as such candidate, shall give, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, an intimation to the Central Government as to the amount of foreign contribution received by him, the source from which and the manner in which such foreign contribution was received and the purposes for which, and the manner in which, such foreign contribution was utilised by him.

Recipients of scholarships, etc., to give intimation to the Central Government.

7. (1) Every citizen of India receiving any scholarship, stipend or any payment of a like nature from any foreign source shall give, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, an intimation to the Central Government as ot the amount of the scholarship ,stipend or other payment received by him and the foreign source from which and the purpose for which, such scholarship, stipend or other payment has been, or is being received by him.

(2) Where any recurring payments are being received by any citizen of India from any foreign source by way of scholarship, stipend or other payment, it shall be sufficient if the intimation referred to in sub-section (1) includes a precise information as to the intervals at which, and the purpose for which, such recurring payments will be received by such citizen of India.

(3) It shall not be necessary to give such intimation as is referred to in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) in relation to scholarships, stipends or payments of a like nature, if the annual value of such scholarships, stipends or other payments does not exceed such limits as the Central Government may, by rules made under this Act, specify in this behalf.

Persons to whom section 4 shall not apply.

8. Nothing contained in section 4 shall apply to the acceptance, by any person specified in that section, of any foreign contribution, where such contribution is accepted by him, subject to the provisions of section 10,—

(a) by way of salary, wages or other remuneration due to him or to any group of persons working under him, from any foreign source or by way of payment in the ordinary course of business transacted in India by such foreign source; or

(b) by way of payment, in the course of international trade or commerce, or in the ordinary course of business transacted by him outside India ; or

(c) as an agent of a foreign source in relation to any transaction made by such foreign source with Government ; or

(d) by way of a gift or presentation made to him as a member Government with regard to the acceptance or retention of such gift or presentation ; or

(e) from his relative when such foreign contribution has been received with the previous permission of the Central Government:

Provided that no such permission shall be required if the amount of foreign contribution received by him from his relative does not exceed, in value, eight thousand rupees per annum and an intimation is given by him to the Central Government as to the amount received, the source from which and the manner in which it was received and the purpose for which and the manner in which it was utilised by him ;

(f) by way of remittance received, in the ordinary course of business, through any official channel, post office, or any authorised dealer in foreign exchange under the Foreign Exchange Regulation Act, 1973.

46 of 1973.

Explanation.- In this Act, the expression "relative" has the meaning assigned to it in the Companies Act, 1956.

1 of 1956.

Restrictions of acceptance of foreign hospitality.

9. No member of a Legislature, office-bearer of a political party, Government servant or employee of any corporation shall, while visiting any country or territory outside India, accept, except with the prior permission of the Central Government, any foreign hospitality :

Provided that it shall not be necessary to obtain any such permission for an emergent medical aid needed on account of sudden illness contracted during a visit outside India, but, where such foreign hospitality has been received, the person receiving such hospitality shall give, within one month from the date of receipt of such hospitality, an intimation to the Central Government as to the receipt of such hospitality, and the source from which, and the manner in which, such hospitality was received by him.

Power of Central Government to prohibit receipt of foreign contribution, etc., in certain cases.

10. The Central Government may-

(a) prohibit any association, not specified in section 4, or any person, from accepting any foreign contribution ;

(b) require any association, specified in section 6, to obtain prior permission of the Central Government before accepting any foreign contribution ;

(c) require any person or class of persons or any association, not being an association specified in section 6, to furnish intimation within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed as to the amount of any foreign contribution received by such person or class of persons or association, as the case may be, and the source from which and the manner in which such contribution was received and the purpose for which and the manner in which such foreign contribution was utilised ;

(d) require any person or class of persons, not specified in section 9, to obtain prior permission of the Central Government before accepting any foreign hospitality ;

(e) require any person or class of persons, not specified in section 9, to furnish intimation, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, as to the receipt of any foreign hospitality, the source from which and the manner in which such hospitality was received :

Provided that no such prohibition or requirement shall be made unless the Central Government is satisfied that the acceptance of foreign contribution by such association or person or class of persons, as the case may be, the acceptance of foreign hospitality by such person, is likely to affect prejudicially

(i) the sovereignty and integrity of India ; or

(ii) the public interest ; or

(iii) freedom or fairness of election to any Legislature ; or

(iv) friendly relations with any foreign State ; or

(v) harmony between religious, racial, linguistic or regional groups, castes or communities.

Application to be made in prescribed form for obtaining prior permission to accept foreign contribution or hospitality.

11. (1) Every individual, association, organisation or other person, who is required by or under this Act to obtain the prior permission of the Central Government to accept any foreign contribution or foreign hospitality, shall, before the acceptance of any such contribution or hospitality, make an application for such permission to the Central Government in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed

(2) If an application referred to in sub-section (1) is not disposed of within ninety days from the date of receipt of such application the permission prayed for in such application shall, on the expiry of the said period of ninety days, be deemed to have been granted by the Central Government. :

Provided that, where, in relation to an application, the Central Government has informed the applicant the special difficulties by reason of which his application cannot be disposed of within the said period of ninety days, such application shall not until the expiry of a further period of thirty days, be deemed to have been granted by the Central Government.

CHAPTER III

Miscellaneous

Power to prohibit payment of currency received in contravention of the Act.

12. Where the Central Government is satisfied, after making such inquiry as it may deem fit, that any person has in his custody or control any article or currency, whether Indian or foreign, which has been accepted by such person in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act, it may, by order in writing, prohibit such person from paying, delivering, transferring or otherwise dealing with, in any manner whatsoever, such article or currency save in accordance with the written orders of the Central Government and a copy of such order shall be served upon the person so prohibited in the prescribed manner and thereupon the provisions of sub-sections (2), (3), (4) and (5) of section 7 of the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967 shall, so far as may be, apply to, or in relation to, such article or currency and references in the said sub-sections to moneys, securities or credits shall be construed as references to such article or currency. 37 of 1967.

Receiptents of foreign contribution to maintain accounts, etc.

13. Every association, referred to in section 6, shall maintain, in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed,—

(a) an account of any foreign contribution received by it, and

(b) a record as to the manner in which such contribution has been utilised by it.

Inspection of accounts or records.

14. If the Central Government has, for any reason, to be recorded in writing, any ground to suspect that any provision of this Act has been, or is being, contravened by—

(a) any political party, or

(b) any person, or

(c) any organisation, or

(d) any association,

it may, by general or special order, authorise such gazetted officer, holding a class I post, as it may think fit (hereinafter referred to as the authorised officer), to inspect any account or record maintained by such political party, person, organisation or association, as the case may be, and thereupon every such authorised officer shall have the right to enter in or upon any premises at any reasonable hour, before sunset and after sunrise, for the purpose of inspecting the said account or record :

Provided that no gazetted officer shall be authorised to inspect the account or record maintained by a political party, unless he has been holding a class I post in connection with the affairs of the Union, or a State, for not less than ten years.

Seizure of accounts or records.

15. If, after inspection of an account or record referred to in section 14, the authorised officer has any reasonable cause to believe that any provision of this Act or of any other law relating to foreign exchange has been, or is being, contravened, he may seize such account or record and produce the same before the court in which any proceeding is brought for such contravention :

Provided that the authorised officer shall return such account or record to the person from whom it was seized if no proceeding is brought within six months from the date of such seizure for the contravention disclosed by such account or record.

Seizure of article or currency received in contravention of the Act.

16. If any gazetted officer, authorised in this behalf by the Central Government, by general or special order, has any reason to believe that any person has in his possession or control any article exceeding rupees one thousand in value, or currency, whether Indian or foreign, in relation to which any provision of this Act has been, or is being, contravened, he may seize such article or currency.

Seizure to be made in accordance with the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

17. Every seizure made under this Act shall be made in accordance with the provision of section 100 of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1973.

2 of 1974.

Confiscation of article or currency obtained in contravention of the Act.

18. Any article or currency which is seized under section 16 shall be liable to confiscation if such article or currency has been adjudged under section 19 to have been received or obtained in contravention of this Act.

19. Any confiscation referred to in section 18 may be adjudged--

(a) without limit, by the Court of Session within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the seizure was made ; and

(b) subject to such limits as may be prescribed, by such officer, not below the rank of an Assistant Sessions Judge, as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf.

Opportunity to be given before adjudication of confiscation.

20. No order of adjudication of confiscation shall be made unless a reasonable opportunity of making a representation against such confiscation has been given to the person from whom any article or currency has been seized.

Appeal.

21. (1) Any person aggrieved by any order made under section 19 may prefer an appeal,—

(a) where the order has been made by the Court of Session, to the High Court to which such Court is subordinate ; or

(b) where the order has been made by any officer specified under clause (b) of section 19, to the Court of Session within the local limits of wnose jurisdiction such order of adjudication of confiscation was made :

within one month from the date of communication to such person of the order :

Provided that the appellate court may, if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from preferring the appeal within the said period of one month, allow such appeal to be preferred within a further period of one month, but not thereafter.

(2) Any organisation referred to in section 5, or any person or association referred to in section 9 or section 10, aggrieved by an order made in pursuance of the Explanation to sub-section (1) of section 5 or by an order of the Central Government refusing to give permission, or by any order made by the Central Government, under section 5 or section 9 or section 10, as the case may be, may within sixty days from the date of such order prefer an appeal against such order to the High Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the appellant ordinarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain, or, where the appellant is an organization or association, the principal office of such organization or association is located.

(3) Every appeal preferred under this section shall be deemed to be an appeal from an original decree and the provisions of Order XLI of the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, shall, as far as may be, apply thereto as they apply to an appeal from an original decree. 5 of 1908.

Penalty for article or currency obtained in contravention of section 12.

22. If any person, on whom any prohibitory order has been served under section 12, pays, delivers, transfers or otherwise deals with, in any manner whatsoever, any article or currency, whether Indian or foreign, in contravention of such prohibitory order, he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine, or with both; and notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, the court trying such contravention may also impose on the person convicted an additional fine equivalent to the market value of the article or the amount of the currency in respect of which the prohibitory order has been contravened by him or such part thereof as the court may deem fit.

2 of 1974.

Punishment for the contravention of any provision of the Act.

23. (1) Whoever accepts, or assists any person, political party or organisation in accepting, any foreign contribution or any currency from a foreign source, in contravention of any provision of this Act or any rule made thereunder, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to five years, or with fine, or with both.

(2) Whoever accepts any foreign hospitality in contravention of any provision of this Act or any rule made thereunder shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine, or with both.

Power to impose additional fine where article or currency is not available for confiscation.

24. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, the Court trying a person, who, in relation to any article or currency, whether Indian or foreign, does or omits to do any act which act or omission would render such article or currency liable to confiscation under this Act, may, in the event of the conviction of such person for the act or omission aforesaid, impose on such person a fine not exceeding five times the value of the article or currency or one thousand rupees, whichever is more, if such article or currency is not available for confiscation, and the fine so imposed shall be in addition to any other fine which may be imposed on such person under this Act.

Penalty for offences where no separate punishment has been provided.

25. Whoever fails to comply with any provision of this Act for which no separate penalty has been provided in this Act shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or with both.

Offences by companies.

26. (1) Where an offence under this Act or any rule made thereunder has been committed by a company, every person who, at the time the offence was committed, was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render such person liable to any punishment if he proves that the offence was committed witohut his knowledge or that he had exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act or any rule made thereunder has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

(a) "company" means any body corporate and includes a firm, society, trade union or other association of individuals; and

(b) "director", in relation to a firm, society, trade union or other association of individuals, means a partner in the firm or a member of the governing body of such society, trade union or other association of individuals.

Bar to the prosecution of offences under the Act.

27. No court shall take cognizance of any offence under this Act, except with the previous sanction of the Central Government or any officer authorised by that Government in this behalf.

Investigation into cases under the Act.

28. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, any offence punishable under this Act may also be investigated into by such authority as the Central Government may specify in this behalf and the authority so specified shall have all the powers which an officer-in-charge of a police station has while making an investigation into a cognizable offence. 2 of 1974

Protection of action taken in good faith.

29. No suit or other legal proceedings shall lie against the Central Government in respect of any loss or damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of the provisions of this Act or any rule or order made thereunder.

Power to make rules.

30.(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the time within which, and the manner in which, intimation is to be given by an association referred to in section 6, with regard to the foreign contributions received by it;

(b) the limits up to which receipt of sholarships, stipends or payments of a like nature need not be intimated to the Central Government;

(c) the time within which, and the manner in which, intimation is to be given by persons receiving any scholarship, stipend or any payment of a like nature from a foreign source;

(d) the time within which, and the manner in which a candidate for election should give intimation as to the amount of foreign contribution received by him at any time within one hundred and eighty days from the date when he became such candidate;

(e) the form and manner in which an application shall be made for obtaining prior permission of the Central Government to receive foreign contribution or foreign hospitality ;

(f) the manner of service of the prohibitory order made under section 12 ;

(g) the form and manner in which account or record referred to in section 13 shall be maintained ;

(h) the limits up to which an officer, not below the rank of an Assistant Sessions Judge, may make adjudication of confiscation ;

(i) any other matter which is required to be, or may be, prescribed.

(3) Every rule made by the Central Government under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be ; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

Power to exempt

31. If the Central Government is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient in the interests of the general public so to do, it may, by order and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the order, exempt any association (not being a political party), organisation or any individual (not being a candidate for election) from the operation of all or any of the provisions of this Act and may, at any time as may be necessary, revoke or modify such order.

Act not to apply to Government transactions.

32. Nothing contained in this Act shall apply to any transaction between the Government of India and the Government of any foreign country or territory.

(6) The conditions of service of the Chairman, Vice-Chairman and other members of a Council shall be such as may be prescribed.

Council to exercise functions notwithstanding vacancies.

16. If, during the course of the trial of a petition, any member of the Council trying the petition is absent or is for any reason unable to perform his functions or has relinquished his membership or has died, the remaining members of the Council may continue the trial of the petition :

Provided that the total number of members of the Council holding the trial is not less than five.

Fresh trial not necessary upon filing up of a casual vacancy in the Council.

17. When any person nominated or, as the case may be, elected to fill a casual vacancy in a Council trying a petition joins the Council, the trial of the petition shall be continued thereafter as if the member so nominated or elected had been a member of the Council from the commencement of the trial of such petition :

Provided that the Council may, if it thinks fit, recall and re-examine any of the witnesses already examined.

Acts or proceedings of a Council not to be invalidated.

18. No act, proceeding, order or decision of a Council shall be invalidated merely by reason of any irregularity in the procedure of the Council not affecting the merits of the case.

CHAPTER III

Presentation of petitions in respect of disputed elections

Presentation of petition.

19. (1) A petition calling in question any election may be presented on one or more of the grounds specified in sub-section (1) of section 52 to the Election Commission by any candidate at such election, or

(i) in the case of a Presidential election, by twenty or more electors joined together as petitioners :

(ii) in the case of a Vice-Presidential election, by ten or more electors joined together as petitioners.

EXPLANATION. In this sub-section, "elector" means a person who was entitled to vote at the election to which the petition relates, whether he has voted at such election or not.

(2) Any such petition may be presented at any time after the date of publication of the declaration containing the name of the returned candidate at the election under section 12 but not later than thirty days from the date of such publication.

(3) A petition shall be deemed to have been presented to the Election Commission when it is delivered to the Election Commission or to such other officer as may be appointed by it in this behalf—

(i) by the person making the petition, or ii by a person authorised in writing in this behalf by the person making the petition.

(4) Every petition shall be accompanied by as many copies thereof as there are respondents mentioned in the petition and one more copy for the use of the Election Commission, and every such copy shall be attested by the petitioner under his own signature to be a true copy of the petition.

(5) At the time of presenting a petition the petitioner shall deposit with the Election Commission in such manner as may be prescribed a sum of two thousand rupees as security for costs.

(6) The Council trying a petition may at any time during the course of the trial of the petition call upon the petitioner to give such further security for costs as it may direct.

(7) No person shall be entitled to be joined as a respondent to a petition under sub-section (3) of section 24 unless he has given such security for costs as the Council may direct.

Parties to the petition.

20. A petitioner shall join as respondent to his petition the returned candidate.

Contents of petition.

21. (1) A petition—

(a) shall contain a concise statement of the material facts on which the petitioner relies ;

(b) where the petitioner alleges that the corrupt practice of bribery or undue influence at the election has been committed by the returned candidate or by any person with the consent of the returned candidate, shall set forth full particulars thereof, including as full a statement as possible, of the names of the parties alleged to have committed such corrupt practice and the date and place of commission thereof ; and

(c) shall be signed by the petitioner and verified in the manner laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for the verification of pleadings : 5 of 1908.

Provided that where the petitioner makes any allegation that the corrupt practice of bribery or undue influence at the election has been committed as aforesaid, the petition shall also be accompanied by an affidavit in the prescribed form in support of the allegation of such corrupt practice and the particulars thereof.

(2) Any schedule or annexure to the petition shall also be signed by the petitioner and verified in the same manner as the petition.

Relief that may be claimed by the petitioner.

22. A petitioner may claim a declaration that the election of the returned candidate is void.

Procedure on receiving petitions.

23. (1) The Election Commission shall, as soon as may be, after the receipt of a petition under section 19, take such steps as may be prescribed for convening a Council for trying the petition.

(2) Where more petitions than one have been received under section 19 in respect of the same election, a single Council shall be convened for the trial of such petitions and such Council may in its discretion try them separately or in one or more groups.

CHAPTER IV
Trial of Petitions

Trial of petitions.

21. (1) Subject to any rules made in this behalf, the Council for the trial of any petition shall hold the trial at New Delhi.

(2) The Council shall dismiss the petition,

(a) if the petition has not been presented within the period specified in sub-section (2) of section 19 ;

(b) if the petition does not comply with the provisions of sub-section (4) or sub-section (5) of section 19 or section 20.

Explanation.—An order dismissing a petition under this sub-section shall be deemed to be an order made under clause (a) of section 30.

(3) Any candidate not already a respondent to a petition shall upon application made by him to the Council within fourteen days from the date of commencement of the trial and subject to any order as to security for costs which may be made by the Council be entitled to be joined as a respondent.

Explanation. For the purposes of this sub-section, the trial of a petition shall be deemed to commence on the date fixed for the respondents to appear before the Council and answer the claim or claims made in the petition.

(4) The trial of a petition shall, so far as is practicable consistently with the interests of justice in respect of the trial, be continued from day to day until its conclusion, unless the Council finds the adjournment of the trial beyond the following day to be necessary for reasons to be recorded.

(5) Every petition shall be tried as expeditiously as possible and endeavour shall be made to conclude the trial within six months from the date of commencement of the trial.

Procedure.

25. (1) The Chairman of the Council or in his absence the Vice-Chairman of the Council shall preside at the sittings of the Council.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Part and of any rules made under this Act, the Council shall regulate its own procedure for the trial of a petition.

Evidence.

26. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, for the purposes of trial of a petition the Council may require any person who in its opinion is able to furnish information or produce documents relevant to the trial to furnish any such information or produce any such document.

(2) For the purpose of any such trial, the Council shall have all the powers of a Civil Court while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, in respect of the following matters, namely :—

5 of 1908.

(a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath ;

(c) receiving evidence on affidavits :

(d) requisitioning any public record or copy thereof from any court or office ;

(e) issuing commission for the examination of witnesses or documents ;

(f) such other matters as may be prescribed.

(3) Any proceeding before the Council shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of section 193 of the Indian Penal Code. 45 of 1860.

Secrecy of voting not to be infringed.

27. No witness or other person sha be required to state for whom he has voted at an election.

Answering of criminating questions and certificate of indemnity.

28. (1) No witness shall be excused from answering any question as to any matter relevant to a matter in issue in the trial of a petition upon the ground that the answer to such quesion may criminate or may tend to criminate him, or that it may expose or may tend to expose him to any penalty or forfeiture :

Provided that

(a) a witness, who answers truly all questions which he is required to answer shall be entitled to receive a certificate of indemnity from the Council ; and

(b) an answer given by a witness to a question put by or before the Council shall not, except in the case of any criminal proceeding for perjury in respect of the evidence, be admissible in evidence against him in any civil or criminal proceeding.

(2) When a certificate of indemnity has been granted to any witness, it may be pleaded by him in any court and shall be a full and complete defence to or upon any charge under Chapter IXA of the Indian Penal Code arising out of the matter to which such certificate relates. 45 of 1860

Expenses of witnesses

29. The reasonable expenses incurred by any person in attending to give evidence before the Council may be allowed by it to such person, and shall, unless the Council otherwise directs, be deemed to be part of the costs.

Decision of the Council.

30. At the conclusion of the trial of a petition the Council shall make an order -

(a) dismissing the petition ; or

(b) declaring the election of the returned candidate to be void.

Order as to costs.

31. At the time of making an order under section 30, the Council shall also make an order fixing the total amount of costs payable and specifying the persons by and to whom costs shall be paid.

Grounds for declaring the election of a returned candidate to be void.

32. (1) If the Council is of opinion,

(a) that the corrupt practice of bribery or undue influence at the election has been committed by the returned candidate or by any person with the consent of the returned candidate ; or

(b) that the result of the election has been materially affected

(i) by the improper reception or refusal of a vote ; or

(ii) by any non-compliance with the provisions of the Constitution or of this Act or of any rules or orders made under this Act ; or

(iii) by reason of the fact that the nomination of any candidate (other than the successful candidate), who has not withdrawn his candidature, has been wrongly accepted : or

(c) that the nomination of any candidate has been wrongly rejected or the nomination of the successful candidate has been wrongly accepted.

the Council shall declare the election of the returned candidate to be void.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the corrupt practice of bribery and undue influence at an election shall have the same meanings as in the Representation of the People Act, 1951.

3 of 1951.

Decision of Council to be in accordance with the view of Majority.

33. If during the trial of a petition there is a difference of opinion among the members of the Council on any matter or if at the conclusion of the trial there is a difference of opinion among them regarding the orders to be made under section 30, or section 31, the opinion of the majority shall prevail and the orders of the Council shall be expressed in terms of the views of the majority :

Provided that where the members are equally divided on any matter or with regard to any order to be made, the matter shall be decided or, as the case may be, the order shall be made, in accordance with the views of the members who concur with the Chairman.

Transmission of orders to the Central Government and its publication.

34. The Council shall, after making its order under section 30, send a copy of that order to the Central Government, and on receipt of such copy the Central Government shall forthwith cause the order to be published in the Official Gazette.

Costs.

35. Costs shall be in the discretion of the Council :

Provided that where a petition is dismissed, under clause (a) of section 30, the returned candidate shall be entitled to the costs incurred by him in contesting the petition and accordingly the Council shall make an order for costs in favour of the returned candidate.

Orders of Council to be final.

36. No order made by a Council under this Part shall be called in question in any court.

Effect of orders of Council.

37. An order made by a Council under this Part shall take effect as soon as it is pronounced by the Council.

Withdrawal and abatement of petitions.

38. The provisions of section 109 to 116 (both inclusive) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, relating to withdrawal and abatement of election petitions shall, so far as may be, apply in relation to withdrawal and abatement of petitions under this Part subject to the modifications that the references therein to an election petition, High Court and petitioner shall be construed as references to a petition under this Part, the Council for hearing such petition and the petitioner in respect of such petition, respectively.

Payment of costs out of security deposits and return of such deposits.

39. (1) If in any order as to costs under the provisions of this Part, there is a direction for payment of costs by any party to any person, such costs shall, if they have not been already paid, be paid in full or so far as possible, out of the security deposit and the further security deposit, if any, made by such party under this Part on an application made in writing in that behalf within a period of one year, from the date of such order to the Election Commission by the person in whose favour the costs have been awarded.

(2) If there is any balance left of any of the said security deposits after payment under sub-section (1) of the costs referred to in that sub section, such balance, or where no costs have been awarded or no application as aforesaid has been made within the said period of one year, the whole of the said security deposits may, on an application made in that behalf in writing to the Election Commission by the person by whom the deposits have been made, or if such person dies after making such deposits, by the legal representative of such person, be returned to the said person or to his legal representative, as the case may be.

Execution of orders as to costs.

40. Any order as to costs under the provisions of this Part may be produced before the principal civil court of original jurisdiction within the local limits of whose jurisdiction any person directed by such order to pay any sum of money has a place of residence or business, or where such place is within a Presidency town, before the court of small causes having jurisdiction there, and such court shall execute the order or cause the same to be executed in the same manner and by the same procedure as if it were a decree for the payment of money made by itself in a suit :

Provided that where any such costs or any portion thereof may be recovered by an application made under sub section (1) of section 39, no application shall lie under this section within a period of one year from the date of such order unless it is for the recovery of the balance of any costs which has been left unrealised after an application has been made under that sub-section owing to the insufficiency of the amount of the security deposits referred to in that sub-section ".

Amendment of Part IV.

4. In Part IV of the principal Act-

(i) section 20A shall be renumbered as section 11 ;

(ii) section 21 shall be renumbered as section 12 and in section 42 as so renumbered, in sub section (2), for clause (j) the following clauses shall be substituted, namely :

"(j) the steps to be taken for convening a Council and for filling of casual vacancies in a Council ;

(k) the deposit or further deposit to be made by the petitioner as security for the costs ;

(l) the procedure for the trial of a petition under this Act ;

(m) the appointment of officers and other employees for assisting the Councils in the discharge of their functions and the conditions of service of such officers and other employees ;

(n) the custody of deposits made under Part III, the payment of costs out of such deposits on an application made under section 39 and other matters relating to the disposal of such applications ;

(o) the fees, if any, payable in respect of any petition or application under Part III ;

(p) any other matter which has to be prescribed by or provided for by rules made under this Act.".

(iii) section 22 shall be renumbered as section 43 ;

(iv) section 23 shall be renumbered as section 44, and in that section as so renumbered, the words and figures 'Save as provided in Part III" shall be omitted.

(u) "Substantive appointment" means appointment made against a permanent post and confirmed in that post.

(v) "temporary officer" in relation to any Grade means a person holding a temporary or officiating appointment in that Grade on the basis of his being regularly approved for such appointment.

Composition of the Service.

3. (1) There shall be four Grades in the Service classified as follows :—

	Grade	Designation	Classification
1.	Higher Selection Grade.	Private Secretary.	Class II Gazetted ministerial.
2.	Selection Grade.	First Personal Assistant.	Class II Gazettee ministerial.

	Grade	Desiguation	Classification
3.	Senior Grade.	Personal Assitant	Class III Non Gazetted ministerial.
4.	Junior Grade.	Stenographer	Class III Non-Gazetted mintsterial.

(2) The number of posts with designation, classification and scales of pay as specified in the Second Schedule shall constitute the Higher Selection Grade of the Service and those specified in the Third Schedule shall constitute Selection Grade of the Service. All posts of Personal Assistant shall unless provision to the contrary is made for any specified posts from Senior Grade of the Service and all posts of Stenographers unless provision to the contrary is made for any specified post form Junior Grade of the Service

(3) The posts in the Higher Selection Grade and the Selection Grade shall be gazetted posts and those in Senior Grade and Junior Grade shall be non-gazetted posts.

Constitution of cadre and allocation of posts.

4. There shall be one cadre of the Service of which the posts may be allocated to each Department or Office specified in column 2 of the First Schedule and all the Offices specified against such Department or Office in column 3 of that Schedule.

Authorised permanent strength and temporary strength of the Service.

5. (1) The authorised permanent strength of the four Grades of the Service on the appointed day shall be as specified in the Fourth Schedule :

Provided that if the authorised permanent strength of any grade or grades in the cadre is revised by the State Government at any time before the appointed day such revised permanent strength shall form the authorised permanent strength of that Grade or Grades of the cadre on the appointed day.

(2) After the appointed day the authorised permanent strength of the Four Grades in the Cadre shall be such as may, from time to time, be determined by the State Government.

(3) The cadre authority may make temporary addition to the cadre as found necessary from time to time.

(4) The ratio of the posts in Higher Selection Gadre, Selection Gadre, Senior Grade and Junior Grade of the Service as far as practicable shall be 1 : 2 : 4 : 8 respectively.

(5) If and for so long as one or more posts of Private Secretary or First Personal Assistant in the Higher Selection Grade or Selection Grade of the Service is filled by an officer who is not a member of the Service or who is not approved for promotion to that Grade, or, if approved for promotion, is not due for such promotion, such officer shall draw the pay which he would be entitled to draw in his post or Grade with such special pay as may be sanctioned by Government from time to time. A member of the Service who, but for such appointment, would have held the post shall draw pay of the Grade to which he would otherwise have been appointed, irrespective of the post held by him.

Exclusion of duty post from Cadre.

6. Any duty post in a Grade may be declared by the cadre authority to be excluded from the cadre if it is necessary, in public interest, for the time being, to fill such post by a person other than a cadre officer of the appropriate grade and the post shall remain excluded from the cadre so long as such declaration remains in force.

Initial Constitution of the cadre

MEMORANDUM

The undersigned proposes to hold an inquiry against Shri Dilip Kumar Saha under Rule--14 of the Central Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1965. The substances of the imputations of mis-conduct or mis-behaviour in respect of which the inquiry is proposed to be held is set out in the enclosed statement of articles of charge (Annexure—I). A statement of the imputations of misconduct or mis-behaviour in support of each article of charge is enclosed (Annexure—II). A list of documents by which and a list of witnesses by whom, the articles of charge are proposed to be sustained are also enclosed (Annexure—III and IV)

2) Shri Dilip Kumar Saha is directed to submit within 10 days of the receipt of this Memorandum a written statement of his defence and also to state whether he desires to be heard in person.

3) He is informed that an inquiry will be held only in reseect of those articles of charge as are not admitted. He should, therefore, specifically admit or deny each article of charge

4) Shri Dilip Kumar Saha is further informed that if he does not submit his written statement of defence on or before the date specified in para—2 above or does not appear in person before the inquiring authority or otherwise fails or refuses to comply with the provisions of Rule—14 of the C. C. S. (C. C. & A.) Rules, 1965 or the orders/directions issued in pursuance of the said Rule, the inquiring authority may hold the inquiry against him ex-parte.

5) Attention of Shri Dilip Kumar Saha is invited to Rule—20 of the Central Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1964 under which no Government servant shall bring or attempt to bring any political or outside influence to bear upon any superior authority to further his interests in respect of matters pertaining to his serviee under the Government. If any representation is received on his behalf from another person in respect of any matter dealt witnin these proceedings it will be presumed that Shri Dilip Kumar Saha, is aware of such a representation and that it has been made at his instance and action will be taken against him for violation of Rule—20 of C. C. S. (Conduct), 1964,

6. The receipt of this Memorandum may be acknowledged.

ANNEXURE—I

STATEMENT OF ARTICLES OF CHARGE FRAMED AGAINST SHRI DILIP KUMAR SAHA, LOWER DIVISION CLERK UNDER THE DIRECTORATE OF FOOD AND CIVIL SUPPLIES, TRIPURA.

ARTICLE OF CHARGE—I

That the said Shri Dilip Kumar Saha while functioning in the office of the Sub-Divisional Officer, Udaipur during the period from 10. 12. 1975 to 11· 5. 1977 exhibited lack of devotion to duty, gross indiscipline and acted in a manner wholly unbecoming of a Government servant and thereby violated the provisions of rule-3(1) of the Central Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1964.

ANNEXURE—II

STATEMENT OF IMPUTATIONS OF MISCONDUCT OR MISBEHAVIOUR IN SUPPORT OF THE ARTICLES OF CHARGE FRAMED AGAINST SHRI DILIP KUMAR SAHA, LOWER DIVISION CLERK UNDER THE DIRECTORATE OF FOOD AND CIVIL SUPPLIES. TRIPURA.

ARTICLE OF CHARGE—I

That Shri Dilip Kumar Saha, Lower Division Clerk has been serving in the office of the Sub-Divisional Officer, Udaipur (Food Section) since 10. 12. 1975. As a Government servant the said Shri Dilip Kumar Saha was required to abide by the provisions of Central Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1964. He was also required to show devotion to duty and to perform the duties as per instructions of his official superiors issued from time to time.

The said Shri Dilip Kumar Saha submitted an application on 29. 10. 1976 to the Sub-Divisional Officer, Udaipur praying for sanction of 5 days' Earned Leave with effect from 4. 11. 1976 and seeking permission to leave station on medical ground. The Sub-Divisional Officer, Udaipur sanctioned him 5 (five) days' Earned Leave from 5. 11. 1976 to 9. 11. 1976 and permitted him to eave station. The said Shri Saha was to have resumed duty on 10. 11. 1976 on expiry to the sanctioned leave, but he did not resume duty on 10. 11. 1976. He did not also submit any leave application praying for extension of leave before 10. 11. 1976. It was only on 6. 12. 1976 i. e. after lapse of about one month that he submitted an application from Calcutta to the Sub-Divisional Officer, Udaipur praying for sanction of more 32 (Thirtytwo) days' Earned Leave on medical ground. Though the leave applied for was on medical ground he did not produce any medicial certificate with the application in support of his illness. Shri Saha should have submitted his prayer for extension of leave on medical ground before 10. 11. 1976 alongwith medical certificate. According to his leave application dt. 6. 12. 76 he was to have resumed duty on 12. 12. 1976. But instead of resuming duty on 12. 12. 1976 he sent another application dated 11. 12. 1976 to the Sub-Divisional Officer, Udaipur praying for sanction of more 30 (Thirty) days' leave on medical ground. With his third application dated 11. 12. 1976 too he did not produce any medical certificate showing probable duration of leave he required for his recovery. According to his leave application dated 11. 12 1976 the said Shri Saha was to have resumed duty on 11. 1. 1977 But Shri Saha did neither resume duty on 11. 1. 77 nor did he submit any leave application covering the period of his absence from 11 1. 1977 to 11. 5. 1977.

As a Covernment servant the said Shri Saha should not have absented himself from duty unauthorisedly. Unauthorised absence from duty amounts to misbehaviour and lack of devotion to duty and as such, wholly unbecoming of a Government servant.

These take effect from the date of publication in the Official Gazettes of Assam, Nagaland, Meghalaya, Manipur and Tripura.

CORRECTION SLIP NO. 72.

" For Rule 7A in Chapter VA the following shall be substituted :

'7A (i) Save in cases where the Court dispenses with the requirements of sub-clauses (a) and (b) of clause (4) of Article 226 of the Constitution in a petition under clause (1) containing a prayar for interim order, no interim order shall be made except where copies of such petition along with all documents in support of the plea for interim order had already been served by the petitioner on each of the respondents and is accompanied by an affidavit of service.

(ii). Unless otherwise ordered, the petition referred to in clause (i) shall be listed for hearing on a date not before the expiry of seven clear days from the date of such service. On such date the respondents will have an opportunity of being heard in regard to the prayer for interim order.

(iii). For the purposes of Rules 7A and 7B it will be sufficient compliance of service on the respondent when a certificate of posting is enclosed along with the affidavit regarding the service."

For Rule 7B the following shall be substituted :

'7B (i) In cases where the Court dispenses with the requirements of sub-clauses (a) and (b) of clause (4) of Article 226 of the Constitution, the Court may entertain the petition exparte, but if the Court makes an interim order on a petition so entertained, the petitioner must, within seven days, serve copies of such petition and of all documents in support of the plea for interim order on each of the respondents and file an affidavit of such service.

(ii). On the service of copies of such petition and of documents in support of the pleas for interim order in accordence with (i) above, the respondents or any of them will be at liberty to move the appropriate Bench for vacating or modifying the interim order already made. The matter shall be posted for orders before such Bench not earlier than seven days unless so moved, and not later than fourteen days from the date of the interim order. "

The following Rule shall be added after Rule 7D :-

" 7E. For the purposes of Rules 7A and 7B where a respondent is represented by an advocate in the case, it would be due compliance with the requirements of the aforesaid Rules, so far as the respondent so is concerned, if copies of such petition and of all documents in support of the plea for the interim order are served on the advocate concerned."

MEMO

Whereas Shri Madan Gopal Chatterjee, Social Education Worker, Dhanicherra S. E. Centre, Kanchanpur, North Tripura had been absenting himself from his duties w. e. from 3. 2. 67 without any authority and thus he failed to maintain devotion to duties as per sub clause (ii) of clause I of article No. 3 of the C. C. S (Conduct) Rules, 1964.

And

Whereas the said Shri Chatterjee while functioning as Social Education Worker had received an amount of Rs. 40/- (Rupees forty) only as advance T. A. but he neither adjusted the said amount by submitting final T. A. bill nor refunded the amount to the Treasury by Chalan thus the amount of Rs. 40/- stands as outstanding liability.

And

Whereas it also reveals that an amount of Rs. 37/- (Rupees thirty seven) only being the festival advance is remaining outstanding and he did not make any attempt to refund the amount inspite of repeated requests made by the Project Executive Officer, Kanchanpur Longai T. D. Block, North Tripura.

And

Whereas the said Sri Chatterjee has got liabilities amounting to Rs. 650.00 (Rupees six hundred and fifty) only to Government on the following account :—

(i) Cost of Cement for construction of Sukna Cherra S. E. Centre	Rs. 200·00
(ii) Value of furniture and Bullock etc. of Subratanagar Ghani Centre.	Rs. 450·00
	Rs. 650·00

And

Whereas the said Shri Chatterjee was asked repeatedly by the Project Executive Officer, Kanchanpur Longai T. D. Block to deposit the said amount of Rs. 650/- but in vain. He neither deposited the amount nor cared to respond to the request of the P. E. O., Kanchanpur.

Now, therefore, Shri Madan Gopal Chatterjee, S. E. W. is hereby asked to explain within 15 (fifteen) days from the date of receipt of this memo as to why (i) his services will not be terminated for such unauthorised long absence from duty under Rule 5(1) - temporary service (conduct) Rules and (ii) a certificate case will not be instituted against him for realising the total amount of liabilities of Rs. 727.00 (Rupees seven hundred twenty seven) as aforesaid.

The explanation of Madan Gopal Chatterjee should reach the undersigned by the date as mentioned above failing which the matter will be decided exparte.

7. Partial allotment: If the total subscriptions exceed the sum of Rs. 1.65 crores, partial allotment will be made to the subscribers in cash. If partial allotment is made, a proportionate refund will be made as soon as possible after allotment. No interest will be paid on the amounts so refunded.

8. Date of repayment: The loan will have a currency of 10 years from the 23rd August 1977 and will be repaid at par on the 23rd August 1987.

9. Interest: The loan will bear interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from 23rd August

Refunds of tax deducted, if any, at the time of payment (at rates prescribed by the annual Finance Acts) will be obtainable by holders of the loan, who are not liable to tax or who are liable to tax at a rate lower than the rate at which tax was deducted. A holder who is not liable to tax or who is liable to tax at a rate lower than the prescribed rate can obtain, on application, a certificate from the Income Tax Officer of the district authorising payment of interest to him without deduction of tax or with deduction of tax at such lower rate as may be applicable to the holder.

Interest on Government securities along with income in the form of interest or dividends on other approved investments will be exempt from income tax subject to a limit of Rs. 3,000/- per annum and subject to the other provisions of Section 80L of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

10. The value of investments in the Loan now issued together with the value of other previous investments in Government securities and the other investments specified in Section 5 of the Wealth Tax Act, 1957 will also be exempt from the Wealth Tax upto Rs. 1,50,000.

11. Place of payment of Interest: Interest will be paid at any treasury or sub-treasury in the State of Tripura and at the Reserve Bank of India, Public Debt Offices at Ahmedabad, Bangalore, Bombay, Calcutta, Hyderabad, Jaipur, Kanpur, Madras, Nagpur, New Delhi and Patna.

12. Form of securities: The loan will be issued in the form of —

1. Stock, the applicants for which will be given Stock Certificates, or
2. Promissory Notes.

If no preference is stated by the applicants, the securities will be issued in the form of Promissory Notes which are transferable by endorsement.

13. Applications for loan: (1) Applications for the loan must be for Rs. 100 or multiples thereof.

(2) Applications will be received at—

(a) the offices of the Reserve Bank of India, Ahmedabad, Bangalore, Bombay (Fort and Byculla), Calcutta, Hyderabad, Kanpur, Madras, Nagpur, New Delhi and Patna;

(b) the branch of the State Bank of Bikaner and Jaipur at Jaipur;

(c) the branches of the State Bank of India within the State of Tripura.

(3) Applications may be made in the form attached hereto [printed copies of which are available at the places mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) above] or in any other form which states clearly the amount and description of the securities required, the full name and address of the applicant and the Public Debt Office or Treasury or Sub-treasury at which he desires that interest shall be paid.

14. Method of paying subscriptions: Applications should be accompanied by the necessary payment in cash or by cheque. Cheques tendered at offices of the Reserve Bank of India, the State Bank of Bikaner and Jaipur and the State Bank of India should be drawn in favour of the Bank concerned. When a cheque is tendered in payment of the application money, the security will not be issued until the amount of the cheque has been realised.

15. Brokerage: Brokerage will be paid at the rate of 6 paise per Rs. 100 (Nominal) to recognised banks and brokers on allotments made in respect of applications for the loan tendered by them and bearing their stamp.

The claim for payment of brokerage should be preferred at the paying office within six months from the date of floatation of the loan.

16. Public Debt Office: The State Public Debt Office will be located at the Reserve Bank of India, Calcutta.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Tripura

B. B. DEB ROY

Secretary to the Government of Tripura
Finance Department.

ত্রিপুরা সরকারের বিভিন্ন সময়ে বিভিন্ন খাতে দেয় কৃষিঋণ মকুবের প্রার্থনা :—

১) রাজ্য সরকারের বিভিন্ন সময়ে ক্ষুদ্র কৃষকগণের আবেদন মতে বিভিন্ন পর্যায়ে ১৯৫৬ইং সন থেকে বিভিন্ন হারে ১৯৭৬ইং পর্যন্ত কৃষিঋণ প্রদান করিয়াছে। অর্থিক অসচ্ছলতার জন্য উক্ত ঋণ পরিশোধ করিতে সমর্থ হয় নাই।

২) ১৯৫৬ইং থেকে বিভিন্নভাবে পাকিস্তান হইতে ত্রিপুরা রাজ্যে প্রায় ১৮ লক্ষ উদ্বাস্তু আশ্রয় গ্রহন করিয়াছে। বাস্তুহারাগণ পূর্বপুরুষের ভিটামাটি ছাড়িয়া এই রাজ্যে আসিয়া অদ্যাপি আর্থিক সংকট কাটিয়া উঠিতে পারে নাই। ফলে এই রাজ্যে শতকরা ৮০ জন কৃষক দারিদ্র সীমার নীচে পড়িয়া আছে।

Printed at the Tripura Government Press, Agartala.
(Tripura Gazette, 516 Copies, 4½ Formas each.)

৩) টীলা লোলার পুনর্বাসিত কৃষকগণ এখনও ঠিকমত জমি আবাদ অনুষ্ঠান করিতে পারে নাই

৪) প্রাকৃতিক দুর্যোগে উক্ত বছরগুলিতে কৃষকের অগ্রগতির উপর আঘাত আসিয়াছে।

৪) পাক সীমান্তে গোলাগুলির ফলে অনেক কৃষকগণ ভিটামাটী ছাড়িয়া অন্যত্র সাময়িক-ভাবে ছাড়িয়া যাইতে বাধ্য হইয়াছিল ফলে আর্থিক ক্ষতিগ্রস্ত হইয়াছে।

৬) বাংলাদেশ স্বাধীনতার প্রাক্কালে ১৬ লক্ষ উদ্বাস্তু এই রাজ্যে আশ্রয় গ্রহন করায় রাজ্য সরকারের ন্যায় কৃষকগণও আর্থিক চাপের সম্মুখীন হইতে হইয়াছিল।

৭) জলসেচের সুষ্ঠু ব্যবস্থা না থাকায় কৃষকগণ কৃষি উৎপাদনের মূল লক্ষ্যে পৌছিতে না পারায় আর্থিক সংকটের মধ্য দিয়া চলিতে হইতেছে।

৮) দাদন রাজা উপজাতীয়গণ গ্রহণ করিয়াছেন ও গ্রুপ লোন (কৃষি লোন) যাহা দেওয়া হইয়াছিল সেগুলি মকুব করার সম্পর্কে বর্তমানে কৃষকগণ সরকার হইতে আনীত কৃষিঋণ সুদ আসলে চতুর্গুন হওয়ায় ঋণের বোঝায় অসহায় অবস্থায় আছে।

অতএব প্রার্থনা, দয়া পূর্বক কৃষকদের কৃষি ঋণ মকুব করিয়া বাধিত করিবেন।

Govt. of Tripura.

RECORD OF APPROVED DECISION OF THE MEETING OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS HELD ON 7. 8. 77 AT 11-20 A. M. IN THE OFFICE OF THE CHIEF MINISTER.

ITEM NO. 4. EMPLOYMENT POLICY.

It was decided that centralised recruitment will be done wherever possible. While taking people in Govt. Service, the following considerations will be given importance : representation of scheduled castes and scheduled tribes, necessity for taking back into service retrenched workers, need-cum-seniority in the case of persons registered with the Employment Exchanges, relaxation of upper age limit to 35 wherever it is less than 35 now, provision of quotas or otherwise ensuring due representation of linguistic, religious or other minorities, such as Muslims and Meitis, preferences to persons from Orphange House and P. L. Home, dependants of Government employees dying in harness, dependants of retired Govt. employees who do not have any earning members, and exservicemen. Whether the interests of these various categories will be catered to by fixing quotas or by issuing directions to the D. P. C. or by prescribing guide-lines should be examined by the Appointment & Services Department in consultation with the Law Deparment, so that action taken by the Government does not violate the provisions of the constitution.

Government of Tripura. Vs. Md. Abdu Meah Kazi,
S/O. Danu Meah Kazi of Khilpara, Udaipur.

0·387 std. hectare of land was determined as excess of the raiyat Shri Abdu Meah Kazi S/O. Danu Meah Kazi of Khilpara under Udaipur Sub-Division and accordingly published in form 62 A in the Tripura Gazette Extraordinary issue on 27.9.76.

Subsequently the Raiyat filed a review petition u/s 96(1) of the TLR & LR Act, 1960. A field enquiry was held, which is a part of the proceeding, wherefrom it revealed that he had transferred 1·20 acres of land from C. S. plot No. 1884 of mouja Pashim Mog Pushkarini vide Regd. deeds. The transferred lands are also posessing by the purchasers. Local evidence also discloses that the sale of the land measuring 1·20 acres i. e. 0·486 std. Hectare made by Jotedar is genuine.

Thus the jotedar does not appear to hold any excess land and the case stands dropped.

Let it be published in the official gazette.

of Laxmichara, Belonia.

15·74 std. acres of land was determined as excess of the raiyat Shri Krishna Chandra Reang S/O. Pui Chandra Reang of Laxmichara under Belonia Sub-Division and accordingly published in form 62 A in the Tripura Gazette extraordinary issue on 27.9.76.

Subsequently the raiyat preferred an appeal u/s. 93 of the TLR & LR Act, 1960 to the Court of the Revenue Commissioner against the final determination of his excess land. The case was remanded to this Court for disposal after holding field enquiry and as per observation made by him. Accordingly the case was examined and heard again after obtaining field enquiry report and no excess land was found there, in view of the direction of disposal of Revenue Commissioner in disposal of appeal. The case accordingly stands dropped.

Let it be published in the official Gazette.

EXTRAORDINARY ISSUE

Agartala, Saturday, August 27, 1977 A. D. Bhadra 5, 1899 S. E.

PART I—Orders and Notifications by the Government of Tripura, the High Court, Government Treasury etc.

THE GAUHATI HIGH COURT AT GAUHATI
GAUHATI HIGH COURT RULES TO REGULATE PROCEEDINGS FOR CONTEMPT OF SUBORDINATE COURTS AND OF THE HIGH COURT.

NOTIFICATION

Dated, Gauhati, the 16th July, 1977.

No. HC. XI-1.75/71/57/HC. In exercise of the powers conferred under Articles 215 and 225 of the Constitution of India, Section 23 of the Contempt of Courts Act 1971 and all other powers hereunto enabling, the High Court makes the following Rules :—

PART—I.

1. Short title :—These Rules may be called the Contempt of Courts (Gauhati High Court) Rules, 1977.

(a) These Rules shall extend to the States of Assam, Nagaland, Meghalaya, Manipur and Tripura and also to the Union Territories of Mizoram and Arunachal Pradesh.

(b) These Rules shall come into force from the date of publication thereof in the Official Gazette of the respective States or the Union Territories concerned.

2. Definitions :—In these Rules unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or the context :—

(a) "Act" means the Contempt of Courts Act 1971. (Act No. 70 of 1971) ;

(b) "Section' means a Section of the Act ;

(c) "High Court" means the Gauhati High Court (High Court of Assam, Nagaland, Meghalaya, Manipur and Tripura) ;

(d) "Judge" means a Judge or an Additional Judge of the Gauhati High Court or a Judge appointed thereto under Article 224A of the Constitution of India ;

(e) "Advocate General" means the Advocate General for the State of Assam or the State of Nagaland or the State of Meghalaya or the State of Manipur or the State of Tripura, as the case may be ;

(f) "Law Officer" means the Officer specified under sub-section (2) of Section 15 of the Act for the Union Territory of Arunachal Pradesh or the Union Territory of Mizoram ;

(g) "Registrar" means the Registrar of the High Court and shall include the Joint Registrar and such Deputy Registrar or Assistant Registrar as may from time to time be specified by the Chief Justice ;

(h) All other words and expressions used in these Rules, but not defined herein, shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Act.

PART—II. COGNIZANCE AND PROCEDURE.

A—GENERAL.

3 (1) Every petition, reference of motion for taking proceedings under the Act shall be registered as Civil Original Petition (Contempt) in respect of Civil contempt, and Criminal Original petition (Contempt) in respect of Criminal contempt.

(2) In proceedings initiated by petition, the initiator shall be described as the petitioner and the opposite party as the respondent, and in other cases the description of the persons proceeded against shall be as follows :—

"In re—A son of ... ... occupation... ... ... resident of ... ...

4. (a) Every petition under Rule 3 shall contain—

(i) the name, description and place of residence of the petitioner or petitioners and of the person or persons charged :

(ii) Nature of the contempt alleged, and such material facts including the date or dates of the commission of the alleged contempt, as may be necessary for the proper determination of the case :

(iii) If a petition has previously been made by him on the same facts, the petitioner shall give the details of the petition previously made and shall also indicate the result thereof :

(b) The petition shall be supported by an affidavit :—

(c) Where the petitioner relies upon a document or documents in his possession or power, he shall file such document or documents or true copies thereof with the petition :

(d) No Court fee shall be payable on the petition or on any documents filed in the proceedings.

5. (1) Every reference relating to Contempt of Court subordinate to the High Court shall be scrutinised by the Registrar who shall place the same before the Chief Justice or any other Judge nominated by him in this behalf for obtaining orders after noting thereon the nature of the contempt.

(2) When any publication, application, letter of is received by post or otherwise called for any action being taken under the Act by the High Court on its own motion, the matter shall be dealt with in the manner prescribed in sub-rule (1). In the case of criminal contempt of a subordinate court, the Chief Justice or the Judge, as the case may be, may direct that the papers be sent to the Advocate General of the State in which the subordinate court is situate, or to the Law Officer, if the subordinate court is situate in the Union Territories of Arunachal Pradesh or Mizoram as the case may be, to move the High Court for taking action under the Act.

6. (1) Every petition, motion or reference in relation to criminal contempt shall, unless the Chief Justice directs it to be heard by a larger Bench, be laid for motion hearing before a Division Bench of at least two Judges.

(2) Every petition, motion or reference in relation to civil contempt shall, unless directed otherwise by the Chief Justice, be laid before a Single Bench.

(3) Every notice issued by the High Court shall be in the form appended to these rules and shall be accompanied by a copy of the motion, petition or reference as the case may be, together with the copies of the affidavits, if any.

(4) The notice shall bear the date, the seal of the High Court and shall be issued under the signature of the Registrar.

(5) Notice of every proceeding under the Act shall be served personally on the person charged, unless the High Court for reasons to be recorded, directs otherwise.

(6) The High Court may, if satisfied that the person charged is absconding or likely to abscond or is keeping or likely to keep out of the way to avoid service of the notice, order the issue of warrant of his arrest which, in the case of criminal contempt, may be in lieu of or in addition to the attachment of his property under sub-sections (3) and (4) of section 17 of the Act. Such warrant may be endorsed in the manner laid down in section 71 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, in terms of the order of the High Court.

(7) Whenever the High Court issues a notice, it may, if it sees reason so to do, dispense with the personal attendance of the person charged with the contempt and permit him to appear by his Pleader, and may, in its discretion, at any stage of the proceedings, direct the personal attendance of such person, and, if neecssary, enforce such attendance in the manner hereinbefore provided.

7. (1) When any person charged with contempt appears or is brought before the High Court and is prepared, while in custody or at any stage of the proceedings, to give bail, such person shall be released on bail, if a bond for such sum of money as the High Court thinks sufficient is executed with or without sureties or condition that the person charged shall attend at the time and place mentioned in the bond and shall continue to so attend until otherwise directed by the High Court.

Provided further that the High Court may, if it thinks fit, instead of taking bail from such person, discharge him on his executing a bond without sureties for his attendance as aforesaid, or without executing such bond.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule(1) where a person fails to comply with the conditions of the bail bond as regards the time and place of attendance, the High Court may refuse to release him on bail, when on a subsequent occasion in the same case he appears before the High Court or is brought in custody and any such refusal shall be without prejudice to the powers of High Court to call upon any person bound by such bond to pay the penalty thereof.

(3) The provisions of Sections 422 to 448 and 450 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, shall, so far as may be, apply to all bonds executed under the rule.

B—CRIMINAL CONTEMPTS.

8. (1) Any person charged with criminal contempt, other than a contempt referred to in Section 14, may file an affidavit in support of his defence on the date fixed for his appearance or any other date fixed by the High Court in that behalf.

(2) If such person pleads guilty to the charge, his plea shall be recorded and the High Court may, in its discretion, either convict him thereon or accept bail for his appearance at such time, as may be appointed, to receive its judgement.

(3) If such person refuses to plead or does not plead, or claims to be tried or the High Court does not convict him on his plea of guilty, it may determine the matter of the charge either on the affidavits filed or after taking such further evidence as may be necessary.

C—CIVIL CONTEMPTS.

9. In the case of a civil contempt other than a contempt referred to in Section 14, the High Court may take action—

(a) on its own motion : or

(b) on a petition presented by the party aggreived : or

(c) in the case of any civil contempt of a subosdinate court, on a reference made to it by that Court.

10 (1) In the case of a civil contempt other than a contempt referred to in Section 14, the person charged may file his affidavit by way of reply to the charge and shall serve a copy thereof on the petitioner or his counsel It least sevea days before the date of hearing.

(2) No further return, affidavit or document shall be filed except with the leave of the High Court.

11. In the case of a civil contempt, the High Court may determine the matter of charge either on affidavits filed or on such further evidence as may be taken by itself or recorded by a subordinate court in pursuance of a direction made by it, and pass such order as the justice of the case requires, having regard to the provisions of Sections 12 and 13 of the Act.

PART—III—APPEALS.

12. (1) Every Appeal filed under the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971 shall be numbered as Contempt Appeal.

(2) Every such Appeal, shall be posted before a Division Bench for orders as to whether notice shall issue to the respondent.

(3) The procedure for regulation of such appeals shall be the same as for appeals under clause 15 of the Letters Patent.

PART IV—MISCELLANEOUS.

13. Every person against whom proceedings are initiated under the Act may of right be defended by an Advocate of his choice competent to appear before the High Court.

14. A Paper Book consisting of the documents specified in rule 4 shall be filed by the petitioner or the Advocate General or the Law Officers as the case may be, in triplicate in a case of criminal contempt and in duplicate in a case of civil contempt. Thereafter, as many copies of the Paper Book as there are respondents to whom notice is issued shall also be furnished along with the process fee prescribed in rule 16.

15. (1) In a case where any proceedings are taken on a reference by a subordinate court or by the High Court on its own motion, the Registry shall prepare the paper book in triplicate in a case of criminal contempt and in duplicate in a case of civil contempt. Such Paper Book shall consist of the following documents :—

(i) Reference or motion

(ii) The objectionable materials if any, alleged to constitute contempt.

(iii) Any other document which the Registrar may deem fit to include or which the High Court may require.

(2) All relevant material brought on the record from time to time shall be included in each paper book.

(3) In any such case, the Court may, at any stage, appoint an Advocate for the condnct of the proceedings.

16. The Rules contained in Chapter XI of Part II of the High Court Rules shall, in so far as they may be applicable, govern the processes issued under these Rules.

17. The rules relating to the grant of copies and translation of records contained in Chapter XIII of Part IV of the High Court Rules shall, in so far as they may be applicable, govern proceedings under the Act.

18. When any person is summoned by the High Court to appear as a witness in any proceedings under the Act, the expenses of such witness, as determined according to the rules for the time being in force, shall be paid by the Registrar out of the Contingency Fund ; provided that the Court may direct any party to such proceedings to such expenses.

19. The High Court may direct any party to a proceeding under the Act to pay the costs thereof as determined by it to any other party thereto.

20. It shall be the duty of the Registrar to carry out, enforce and execute the orders passed by the High Court in any proceeding under the Act, and in particular, orders imposing fines or awarding costs.
